Hi folks,

I think the final attendance list for tomorrow remains the same:

Ellen Endo, Joanne Kumamoto, Rey Fukuda, Evelyn Yoshimura, Kristin Fukushima, and I think James Okazaki.

Please let me know if you are able to speak! I was thinking if Ellen and Joanne can speak to why the building should not be preserved, Rey and I can talk about why the B3 demolition option is better for the city (specifically focusing on the costs, parking differences, etc), and LTCC's conditional support for the Civic Center Master Plan. How does that sound to folks?

A reminder that this is tomorrow: Tuesday, 3/21, 3pm @ City Hall Main, Room 1020.

Thanks!

I like Ellen's idea, although I'm a little worried about 1 minute being enough for folks. Maybe 3ish speakers would be a little more feasible as far as time goes for the folks who are speaking? I also say this with the reminder in mind that the Parker Center EIR is being coupled with the approval of the Civic Center Master Plan, and while LTCC at least does not have an official position on the CCMP - we are at least generally supportive of the concept, and also want to urge that they bring back / continue the community advisory council (that Clement and Chris K sat on) back during the remainder of its process. I can be the speaker to focus on CCMP, if Chris K. can't make it.

Also, I just confirmed that the location of the hearing will be: City Hall Main, Room 1060. There is also a good chance that the item will go to City Council the following day. I'm also told that city folks are seeing this more or less as a slam dunk, given how PLUM went, and the unanimous city council approval of that recommendation. Still good for us to go, though! Both to make sure things go okay, and to continue to be a visible presence on this issue.

So far I have attending:

Ellen Endo, Joanne Kumamoto, Rey Fukuda, Evelyn Yoshimura, Kristin Fukushima, and I think James Okazaki.

Thanks!

Thanks for letting us know Kristin! I can attend as well. Happy to comment, but definitely think everyone else in this thread has greater public comments to make(re-make).

Hi folks,

Parker Center and CCMP will be going to EFC next week: Tuesday, 3/21, 3pm. I was originally told there wouldn't be public comment, but it looks like they decided to open it up to 5 minutes per side for testimony.

While we do not need the turnout of PLUM, we probably want to make sure there's a good handful of folks there to testify and watchdog the process. I'm able to make it - please let me know if you can as well!

Thanks,
Kristin

Hi Kristin,

The next Civic Center Master Plan and Parker Center EIR hearing will be at a special Entertainment and Facilities Committee meeting on March 21st at 3pm. Because there has already been an opportunity for public comment, the committee chair is only giving 5 minutes per side for testimony. Thank you again for your support and I hope you can make it to committee.
